Life Is a Movie, Play the Lead Part

Glitz, glamour and bling is what comes to mind in this swanky resort.

What makes D Pet Hotels Hollywood the Marilyn Monroe of luxury pet hotels? Could it be the 6,000 square foot indoor air conditioned park? The anti-fatigue flooring? The private luxury suites or the VIP chauffeur service? Actually, it seems to go much further than aesthetics—all the way back to the resort's beginning. With so many of their guests being rescues, D Pet Hotels was determined to create a safe, stress-free home away from home...fabulously!

Positive reinforcement

Offered through Bad Dog Good Dog LA (BDGD), classes are offered as a four-week puppy program at the hotel or private at-home training. Incorporating a variety of techniques, BDGD is sensitive to the different backgrounds of all rescues.

Cage-free

Dogs deserve nothing less than the royal treatment. Ranging from 4 x 9 feet to 12 x 22 feet, suites snuggle the most timid Chihuahua and the most boisterous Saint Bernard, all of which are decked out in modern décor and flat screen TVs.

Confidence booster

Kick start and end your loved one's unforgettable stay with a ride in one of their many luxury vehicles such as the Ferrari, Lamborghini Gallardo, Bentley, Porsche or Rolls Royce. They are sure to be ridin' high—after all, an occasional flaunt is ok.

Indoor park

With 6,000 square feet of indoor park separated into three air-conditioned play rooms, this social haven encourages safe and confident play for all sizes and age. Seamless, rubberized flooring is easy on joints and soft on paws.

Glamour pin-up

Furtographs are a must-have with photographer Andy Stolarek. One must capture the glow and beauty after a full day of priming and pampering at the Spa and Wellness Center. Sessions can be set up in his studio or at one's home.

Spa? Yes, please.

The Spa and Wellness Center offers full-service pampering from anesthesia-free teeth cleaning to divine massages to reinvigorating body wraps. Vitamin baths, pawdicures and aromatherapies—oh, my!

Stay, Play and Fluff

As one of their most popular packages, dogs check into the Sensational Suite, play in the dog park throughout the stay and get a custom grooming session before checkout. Pricing starts at $120 per night. RP
